

Notice

Dear travel agent,

In accordance with the latest announcement jointly issued by the Foreign Ministry and the National Immigration Administration Bureau of China, temporary suspension takes into effect for any entry into China for foreign passport holders with valid visas or residence permits from 00:00 (GMT+8) 28 March, 2020. Suspension also extends to the entry of foreign nationals holding Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation Business Travel cards. Some special Visa policies, such as port visas, 24/72/144-hour visa-free transit, Hainan 30-day visa-free privileges, 15-day visa-free privileges specified for foreign cruise-group tours via Shanghai Port, Guangdong 144-hour visa-free privileges for foreign tour groups from Hong Kong or Macao special administrative regions and Guangxi 15-day visa-free privileges specified for foreign tour groups of ASEAN countries, will also be temporarily suspended. However, foreign nationals arriving with diplomatic, service, courtesy or C visas will not be affected. Nevertheless, foreign nationals wishing to come to China for necessary economic, trade, scientific or technological activities - or in extreme humanitarian cases - may apply visas to Chinese embassies or consulates as per usual practice. The entry by foreign nationals with visas issued after this announcement will not be affected,

For passenger' s interest, any above impacted CZ ticket can be involuntarily refunded at original issuing channel within the validity period.
