4. FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

General Policy

1. If the Covid-19 situation persists, will SIA consider extending the validity of the Flight Credits?

We will continue to review and update our Travel Waiver Policy based on the development of the Covid- 19 situation, and keep you updated.

2. What are Flight Credits?

To give our customers a peace of mind during this uncertain times and greater flexibility in their rebooking options in the future, Singapore Airlines introduced Flight Credits.

Customers holding Eligible Tickets can cancel their existing flight bookings and retain the full value of the unused fare and taxes ('value') portion of their tickets as Flight Credits. Once they have decided on their new travel plans, customers may use the Flight Credits to rebook their new flight itineraries, which only has to be completed by 30 June 2021. In addition, they will get a one-time Bonus Flight Credit upon rebooking.

3. What are Bonus Flight Credits?

Bonus Flight Credits are awarded to passengers who utilize their Flight Credits to rebook. The Bonus Flight Credits are offered at the point of rebooking, in the form of a discount off the rebooked itinerary's fare.

4. I have a ticket which meets the eligibility criteria of the Policy, but has expired at point of reissuance. What can I do?

In the event an eligible ticket has expired, travel agents may proceed to manually reissue ticket as long as rebooked travel is completed by 31 December 2021. The ticket will also be eligible for Bonus Flight Credits, subject to the terms and conditions of this Policy.
