

For Covid Positive , you have to follow below rules (email sent to travel agent on 27Jan21) , unable understand why you guys keep on asking questions

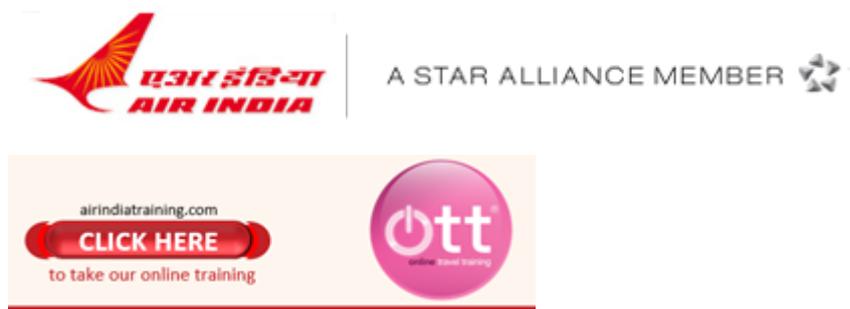

If passenger is tested COVID Positive then

- 1) Booking : Agent to cancel booking to avoid No show charges .
- 2) New Travel date : Passenger to confirm travel date within next 30 days of departure.
- 3) Fare & tax difference : There is no charge for same ticketed RBD even if fare is higher , however fare difference to be charged for higher class .
- 4) Date Change : date change penalty is waived off .
- 5) NO show charge : If passenger tested positive , receives RT PCR TEST result within 12 hours of flight departure then No show charge will be waived off .
- 6) Date change or No show charge to be collected : For Passenger who is tested positive receives RT PCR test result before day of departure and forget to cancel booking ,
- 7) Documentation : RT PCR COVID 19 POSITIVE TEST CERTIFICATE from an authorised diagnostic centre is a must .
- 8) Family member : To avail above waiver for family member travelling together then document to prove relationship with Covid positive tested passenger is required .
- 9) Ticketing :
 - a) Travel agent to re issue ticket with new travel date .
 - b) Insert Waiver reference in endorsement box : 04/COV/2021 .
 - c) Send email to airindiauk with re issued ticket number and Covid test certificate to be verified by Fare Audit team .

For re routing , you have to pay re routing charge GB 125 PLUS FARE AND TAX DIFFERENCE

Thanks and Rgds,
