

View in browser

VSbulletin - Tel Aviv Unrest - Update 12 May 2021

We, along with our local teams, are monitoring events in Israel extremely carefully and keeping our Tel Aviv flight operations under constant review. With health and safety our number one priority, we're regularly assessing operations and we'll inform our customers and trade partners at the earliest opportunity if we need to make any changes to our flying schedule. Following a detailed risk assessment, this evening's flight from London Heathrow to Tel Aviv remains scheduled to operate. Tel Aviv Ben Gurion Airport is currently open and international commercial flights are arriving and departing. Diversion contingencies are in place.

If a passenger is impacted by the ongoing unrest in Tel Aviv and is due to travel up to and including 17 May 2021, please check our updated policy here.

If you have any questions please contact our Sales Support team

You are receiving this email because you have opted in to receive VSbulletin updates from Virgin Atlantic's vsflyinghub. You can unsubscribe here however if you do you will miss out on important competitions, incentives and announcements.

Registered office:

Virgin Atlantic Airways Ltd