EVA Air Passenger Exclusive COVID-19 PCR Test Discount Updates

EVA passengers who require COVID-19 Fit-to-Fly or Test-to-Release RT-PCR tests can now obtain them at a discounted price (a £25 saving) from Melio Health using an EVA Air discount code: EVA1-S4VE for the next-day result service or express service. To qualify passengers will need to hold EVA (695) tickets and have a confirmed booking on BR international flights departing from London Heathrow.

COVID-19 testing services are provided independently of EVA Air. Should you choose to purchase a COVID-19 test from the clinic, their terms and conditions will apply. The testing services referenced here are not being advertised by EVA Air as a travel service or as a holiday feature.

Terms and Conditions:

- Only passengers holding EVA(695) tickets with confirmed booking on BR international flights departing from LHR are eligible for obtaining the discount.
- The medical reporting will be responsible and reported by GMC registered doctors from Melio. EVA Air takes no responsibility for the test and medical report.
- EVA Air reserves the right to change these terms and conditions at any time without prior notice.
