

Commercial Policy– 09 March 2026

Dear Travel Trade Partners

Due to the ongoing force majeure circumstances, please find below the updated commercial policy applicable to eligible bookings.

INVOLUNTARY* changes :

- issued on WY ticket stock (910)

* Flights cancelled / delayed for more than two hours

Refund	Full refund may be processed regardless of fare rules, with all refund penalties waived. • Refunds should be made to the original form of payment. • In case of a partial refund request (only one direction of the itinerary to be refunded), refund amount should be calculated on a half round-trip basis.
Date Change	One free additional date change is permitted in the same ticketed RBD as originally booked, and within the validity of the ticket. In cases where the original ticketed RBD is not available, the lowest available RBD can be booked within the same cabin. • Travel dates should be within 30 days of originally booked dates • Passenger may rebook unutilized outbound and inbound on the same Ticket within one reissue transaction to match original length of stay, or in case of non-daily flight operation to extend the original length of stay up to the next day of operation.
Re-routing	One free change to the point of origin and/or destination is permitted using any routing for which a WY published fare exists. • Origin and/or destination may be changed to any point within the same country as originally booked. • Origin and/or destination may be changed to any point within 500 miles (TPM) as originally booked, regardless of country. • Bookings should be made in the same RBD as originally ticketed, and within the validity of the ticket. In cases where the original ticketed RBD is not available, the lowest available RBD can be booked within the same cabin. • Travel dates should be within 30 days of originally booked dates. Examples: • Original: LHR-MCT-COK may be changed to LHR-MCT-BOM. This is permitted because BOM is in the same country as COK. • Original: LHR-MCT-HKT may be changed to LHR-MCT-KUL. This is permitted because KUL is less than 500 TPM from One free change of routing between the same origin and destination as ticketed is permitted using any routing for which a WY published fare exists. • Routings, applicable airlines, and RBDs should be exactly as per an existing WY published fare. • Travel dates should be rebooked with 30 days of originally booked dates. Examples:
